Welcome greeting

We would like to give you a brief presentation on our company, Diony, a Japanese trading company specialized in Food and Beverage.

With global health consciousness, consumers are increasingly demanding natural drinks and foods as well as lifestyle.

We are familiar with this trend, and we can make new proposals for your business.

We sincerely hope that we will be an important partner.

About us:

We are located in Kyoto, famous old city. Kyoto used to be Japan's capital during over 1,000 years, and still is one of the very important centers for history, culture and tourism.

Our headquarter office is located at Fushimi, Kyoto, one of the historical centers for sake production in Japan. We also have a branch office in Tokyo. Total 43 employees are working in two offices.

About us: Our background

We started grocery store in Kyoto, Japan back in 1877.

Thereafter, we also established wholesale business carrying soy sauce and liquor in the early 1900s.

We have been in the liquor and food business for over 100 years.

Our main business

Importing natural wine from Europe

Distributing sake and foods

Exporting original food brand

Since 2000, our focus shifted to importation and sales of natural wine. we currently work with 154 wines producers from Europe.

In addition, we distribute the sake and food and export original food brand as well.

Our next business

We started our new pillar of business which is export of natural sakes and foods.

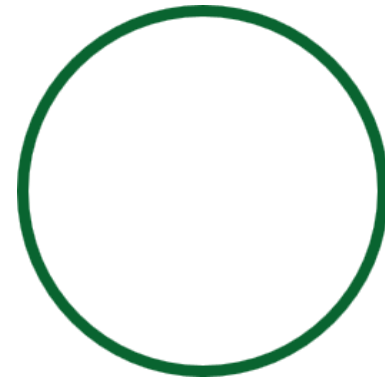

We are here to introduce to you the sakes which can express Japanese terroir and nature.
